

Terms of Service (TOS) for a Bio page on the LEARS Website:

This is an amateur radio organization, so we expect everyone (that means everyone) to abide by our simple rules. This is not commercial advertising space! It is about amateur radio, you, and your general interests.

- If you want to mention where you work, that is fine. We will allow one link to your worksite for those who may have an interest in that information, but everyone will refrain from “advertising” your professional services. Advertising includes banners, etc. The webmaster is not in the personal web page business!
- One family/self photo will be permitted, as well as one personal shack photo if desired.
- Any content which is routinely banned on amateur radio air waves is banned from this site.
- If there is any “grey area” on what constitutes acceptable content, the LEARS club or its officers will make the final determination.
- The webmaster reserves the right to edit for clarification, spelling, etc.

By submitting information to the webmaster, it will be assumed that you have read this document, and that you agree to abide by these Terms of Service (TOS).
